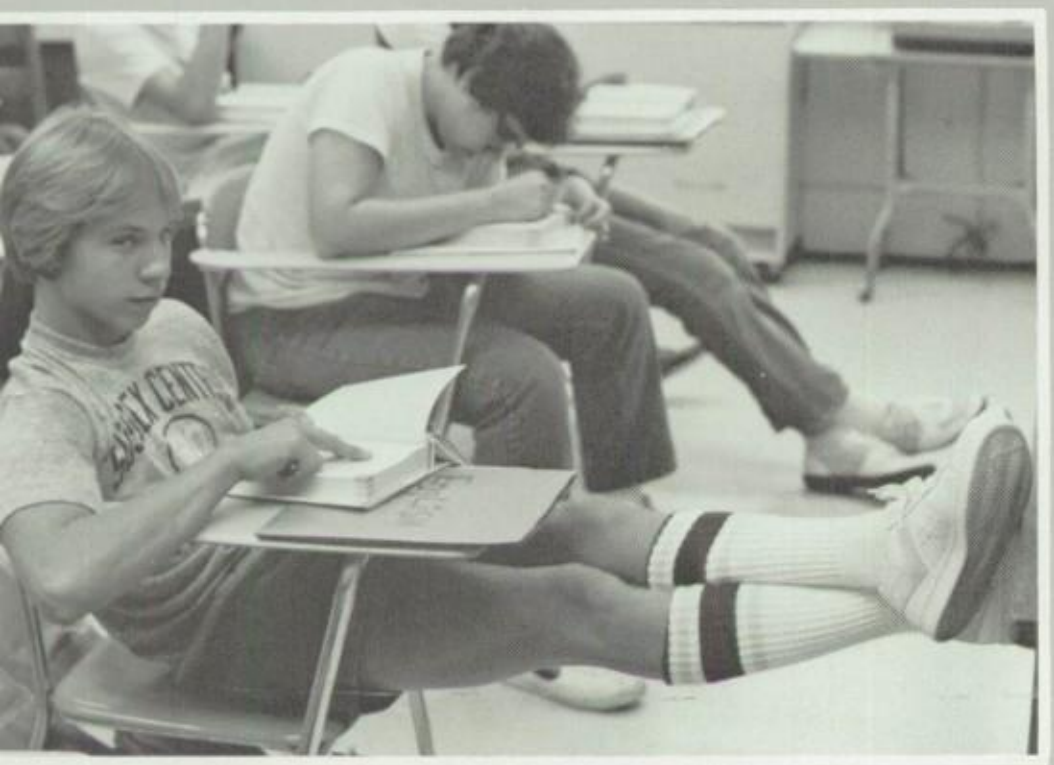
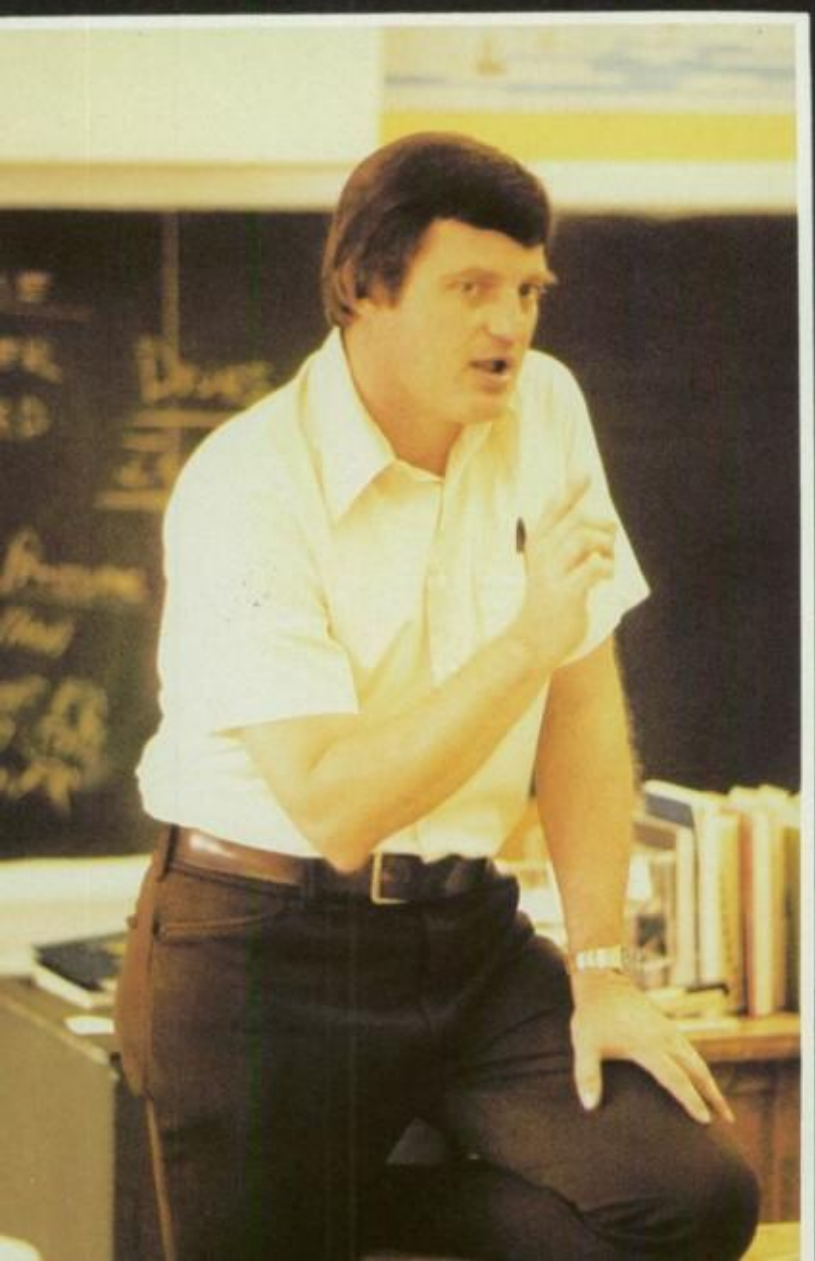
We show who we are, and we are proud. We've got spirit and sportsmanship. We're alert, studious, talented, and oh-so together. We are S.C.

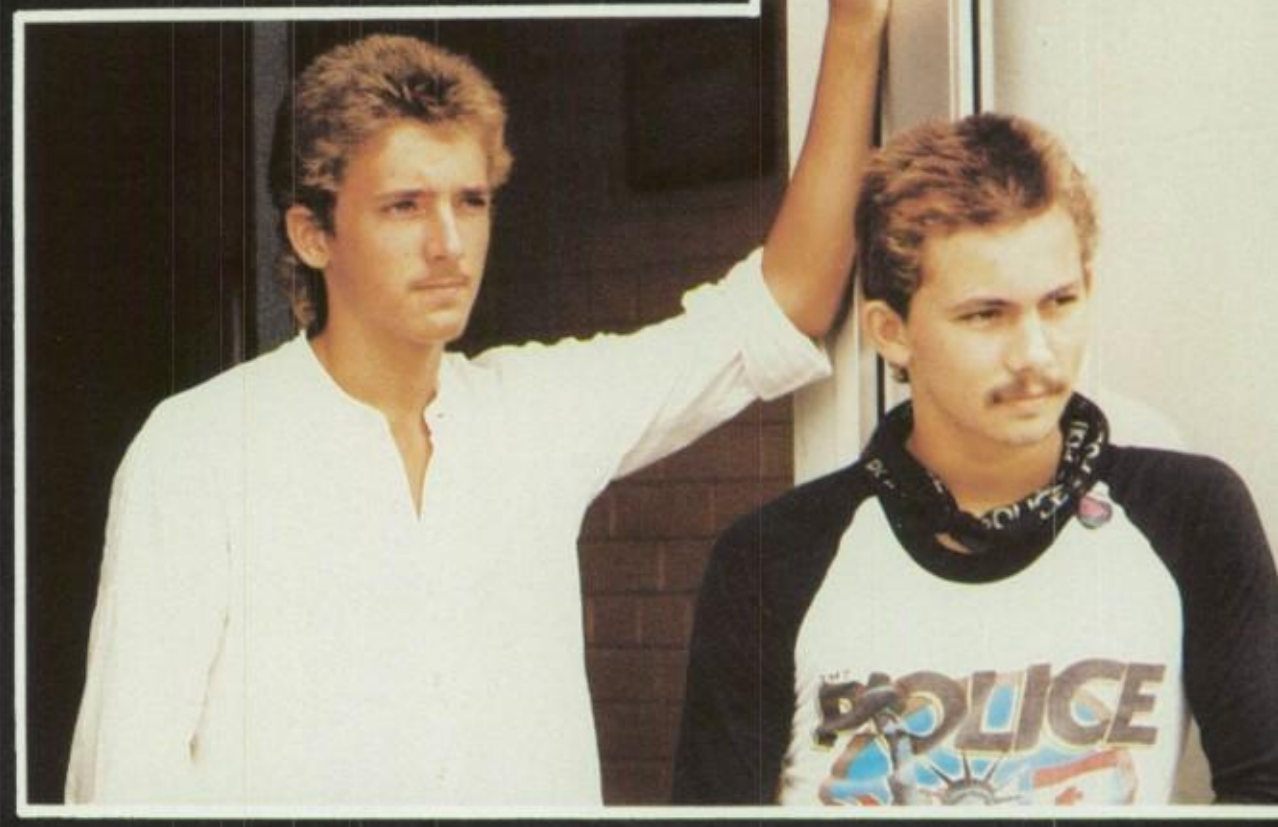
KNIGHT LIFE



We join hands, we listen, we jump for joy, we explain and observe, sometimes in our reflections we become sad and sometimes very happy.

We're on the pathway of becoming the special people that will make this world turn to our beat. We're getting it all together.

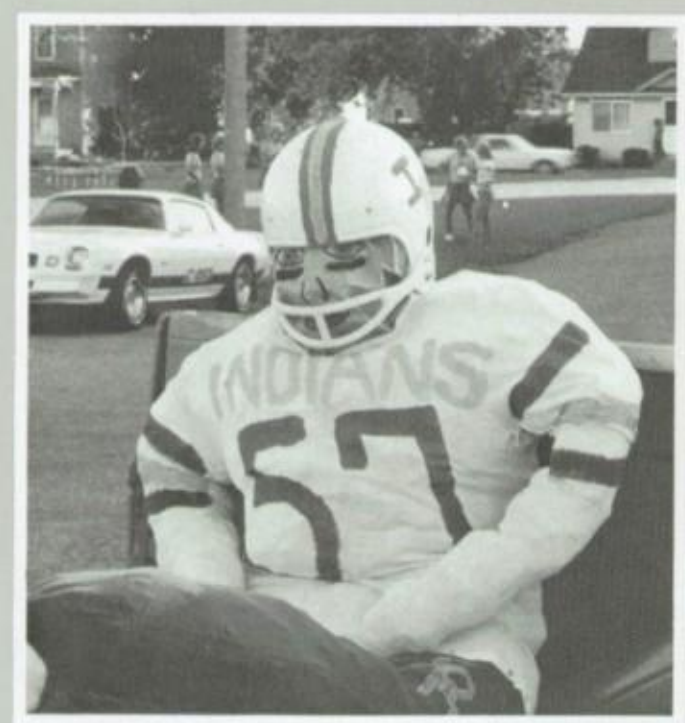


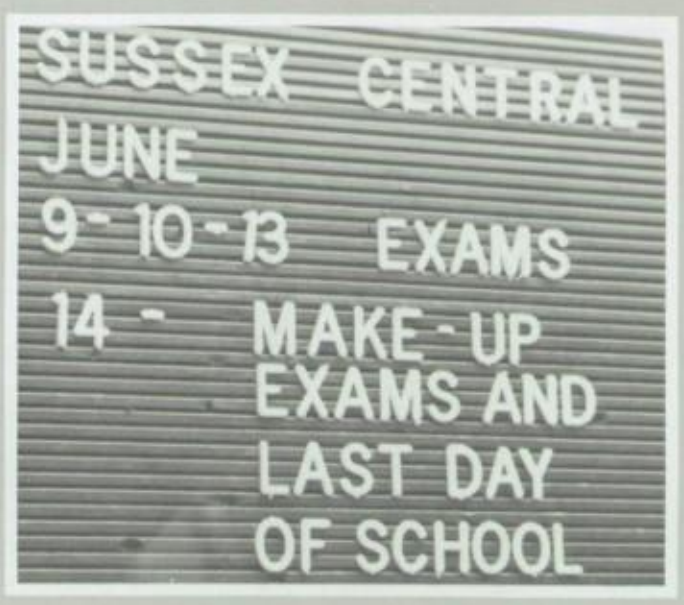


GETTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Opening year events. The night before the big S.C. vs I.R. football game everyone was rowdie and ready to start off the year with a victory.

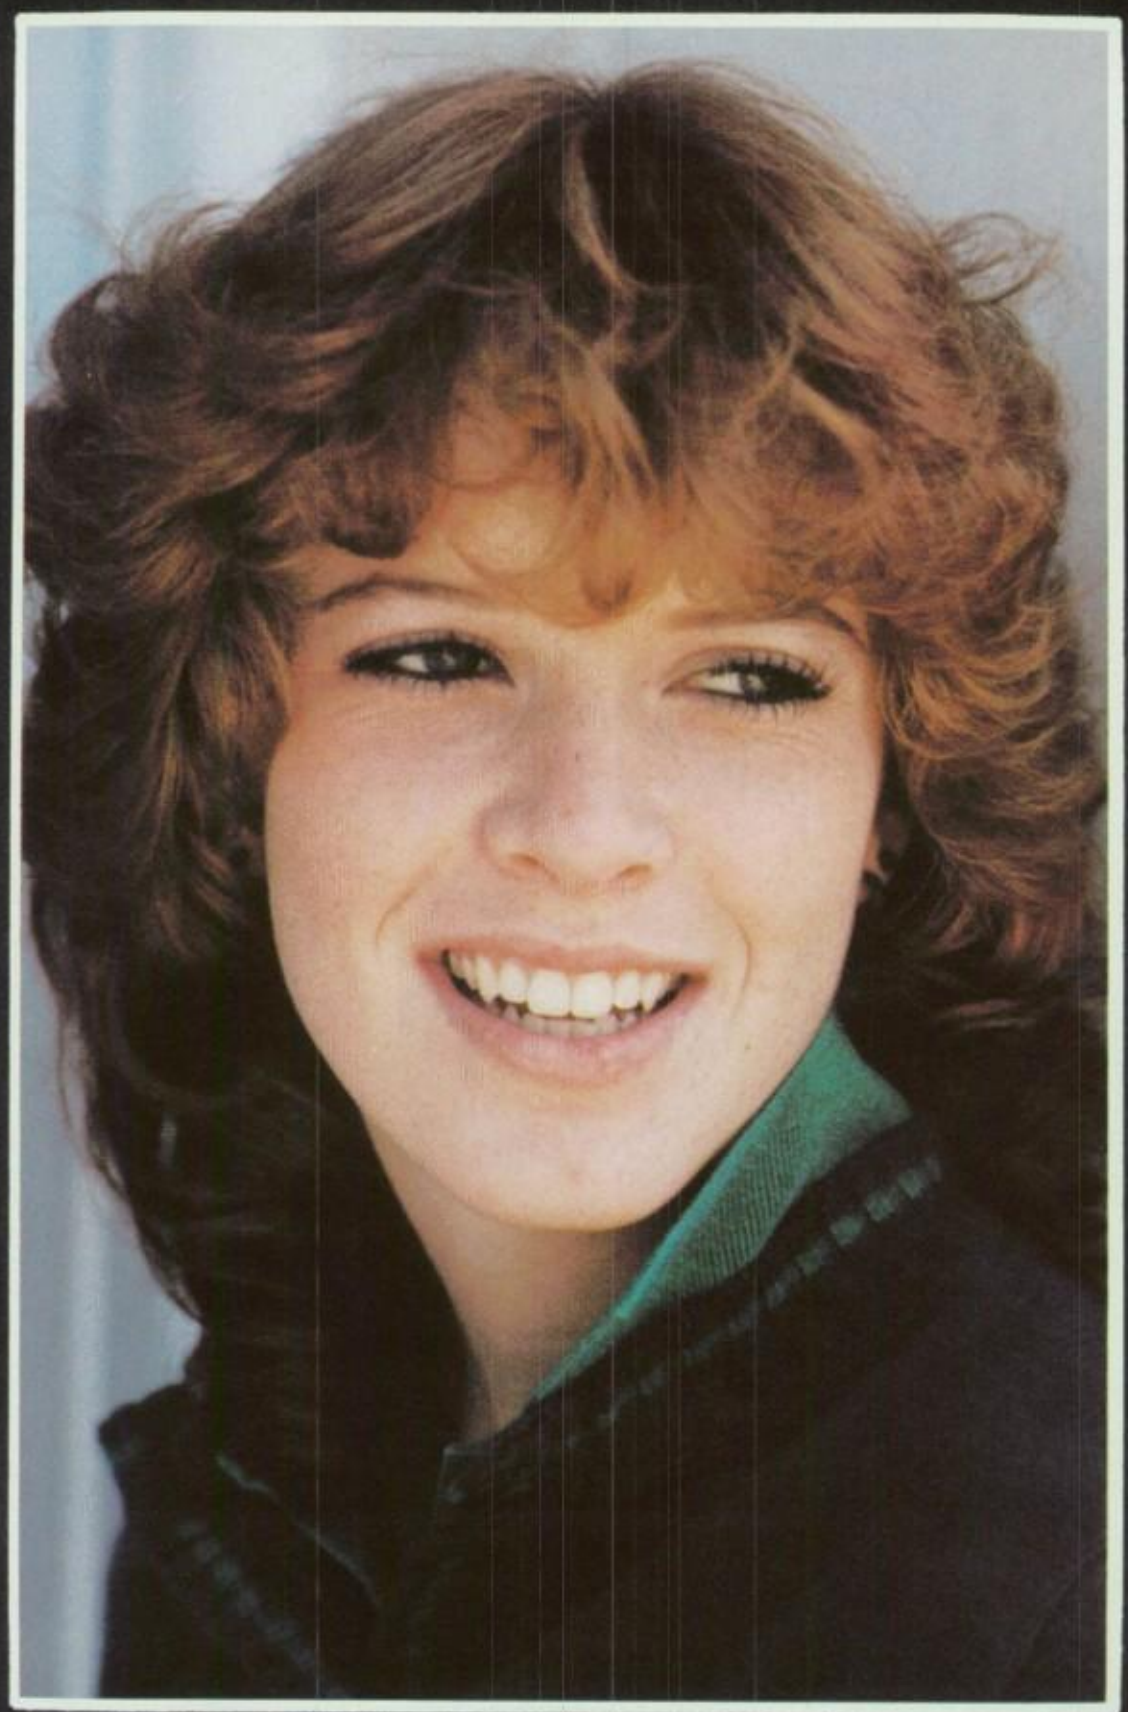
We all showed up with our spirit tagging right along behind us. We played, we won, we tied. We are so awesome.





FIRE 'EM UP S.C.!

REFLECTIONS



Reflections . . . we're looking on. Behind those eyes there's so many things to see. We watch our comrades play the game. We see our team win.

We absorb the words from pages in many books. We look for each other. We gaze toward the future . . . We are ready.

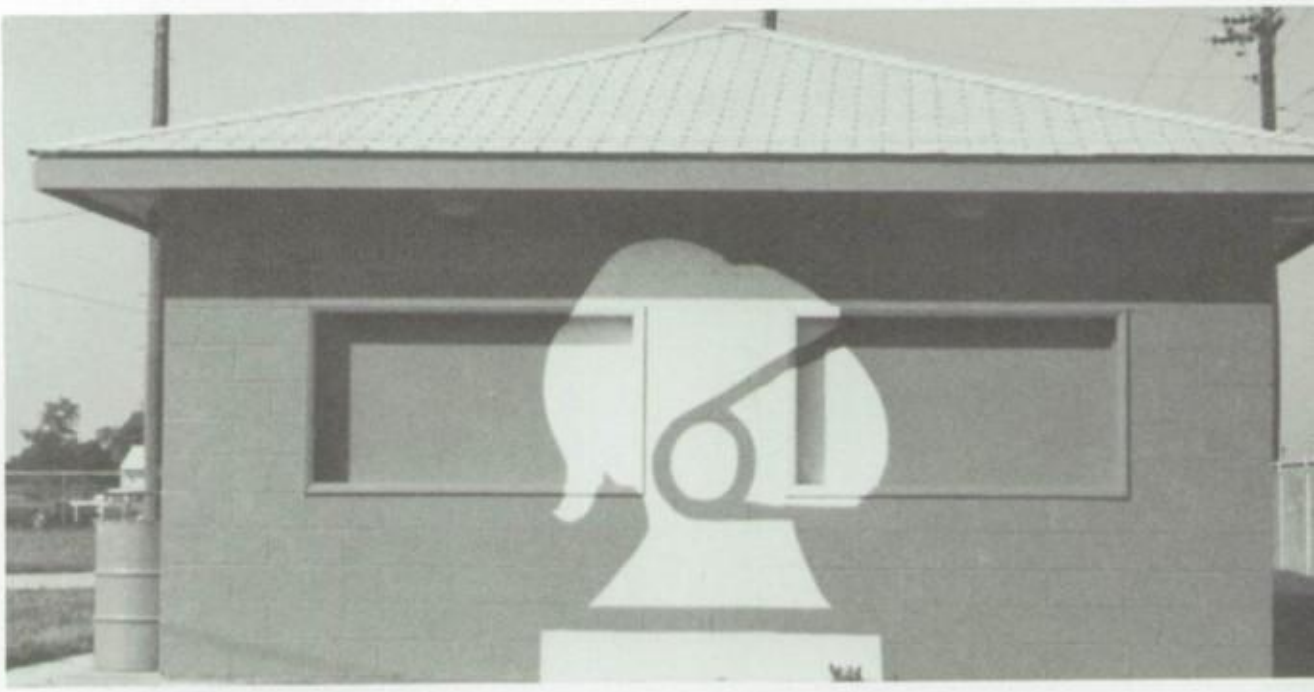
In Memory

Tracey Lynn Robb

This yearbook is dedicated to one very special person, Tracey Robb. Although in reality she is no longer with us, her spirit lives on in the many hearts she touched. So, until we meet again my friend, we would just like to say,
Thank you, from the class of 84.

WE SAY FAREWELL



To the moments of joy we leave behind, We say farewell . . .
To the laughter that made our days so bright, We say farewell . . .
To the happiness we shared, We way farewell . .

To the spirit of love that always filled our days, We say farewell . . .
To Sussex Central, that if was permitted to speak would tell of our good times and bad, We say farewell . . .
To the classes that housed our knowledge, We say farewell . . .
To the teachers who shared their long-learned experience to make us what we are, We say farewell . . .
And to the walls of S.C. that hold the unreplacable memories of our past, We, the senior class of '84, say . . .
Farewell . . .

Softball was fun this year. We had a 6-5 won-loss record and we were within one win of being in the state tournament.

Outstanding players this year were Jill Young, Terri Tipton, and Shelly Ward. The other players did a fine job and improved at their positions.

Only two Seniors were on the team - Kim Martine and Kathy Simmons. The rest of the team plus some good 9th grade talent should make SC competitive for next year. RON STEEN

1984 WRESTLING

The '83-'84 wrestling season began with many inexperienced wrestlers in the line-up and injuries to several starters, due to non-wrestling activities. Throughout the year this young team gained valuable experience and ended their 4-7 season with 3 straight victories including an exciting upset victory over Dover.

Senior Jeff Stevenson had an outstanding year. He had a 46-0 dual meet 2-year win streak climaxed by his second consecutive conference and state championships. Heavyweight Mark Marvel captured a 3rd place in the conference tournament and will be returning next year.

DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS

Advanced Dungeons and Dragons is a world. Of course this world is not complete. It needs organizers and adventures to order and explore it. Swords and sorcery best describes what this game is all about, for those are the two key fantasy ingredients. Advanced D&D is a fantasy game of role playing which relies upon the imagination of participants, for it is certainly make-believe, yet it is so interesting, so challenging, so mind-unleashing, that it comes near reality. This is the realm of the Dragonslayers.

BOOKSTORE WORKERS

Bookstore assistants have a big responsibility. They handle money, they make orders, they handle the lunch pass, along with selling school materials. The book store is also very convenient for students because it has pencils, pens, tablets, typing paper, license plates, school pins, key chains, gum, candy, and more. The bookstore is a big advantage for everyone.

- Prom
- class play

SPIRIT WEEK

DAY-1: Dress Up
Everyone was all slicked up for the 1983 S.C. Spirit Week. The Lt. Governor, Mike Castle, came to S.C. to discuss the SADD and MADD programs. He was really pleased to see everyone so well dressed and so spirited. Best dressed: Tony Varrato.

DAY-2: Bum Out
The second day of S.C.'s spirit week was well represented by most of the school members and faculty. Everyone just loves to bum out and show their spirit! Best Dressed: Pandora Baily.

DAY-3: Punk Rock
Almost everyone showed their spirit on the third day of S.C.'s spirit week. There were punk rockers every where in sight. Best Dressed: Susannah Griffin.

Day4: 50's
On the fourth day of S.C.'s spirit week the boys had their hair greased and the girls had their bobby socks on ready to show their spirit! Best Dressed: Loriann Megee.

*DAY5: Blue, Gold
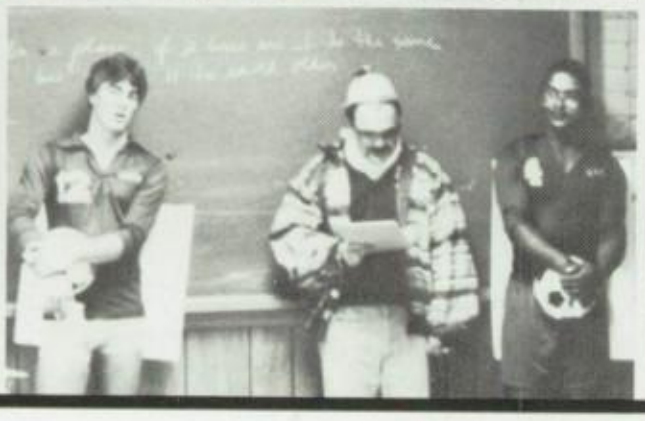
Finally came day five of S.C.'s spirit week, and the blue and gold really shined! Best Dressed: Valasteen Hooper.



SLAVE DAY:
Everyone had a blast laughing at all the crazy slaves. Kichline was the auctioneer, and he always comes up with the right words to get everyone buying. The highest price paid for one person was from the junior class. The person was Mr. Long and the amount was $135.00! ! ! Another day where S.C. shows its spirit! !

HOMECOMING PEP-RALLY 1983

The 1983 homecoming pep-rally was a lot of fun. Members from each class participated in many games. We had a slave auction with Mr. Kichline being the auctioneer. Mr. Long was sold to the juniors for over $140. The S.C. cheerleaders did a pom-pom routine to the tune of Freakazoid. We had our class yell, and the spirit stick went to the junior class. The 1983 homecoming pep-rally is one to be remembered!

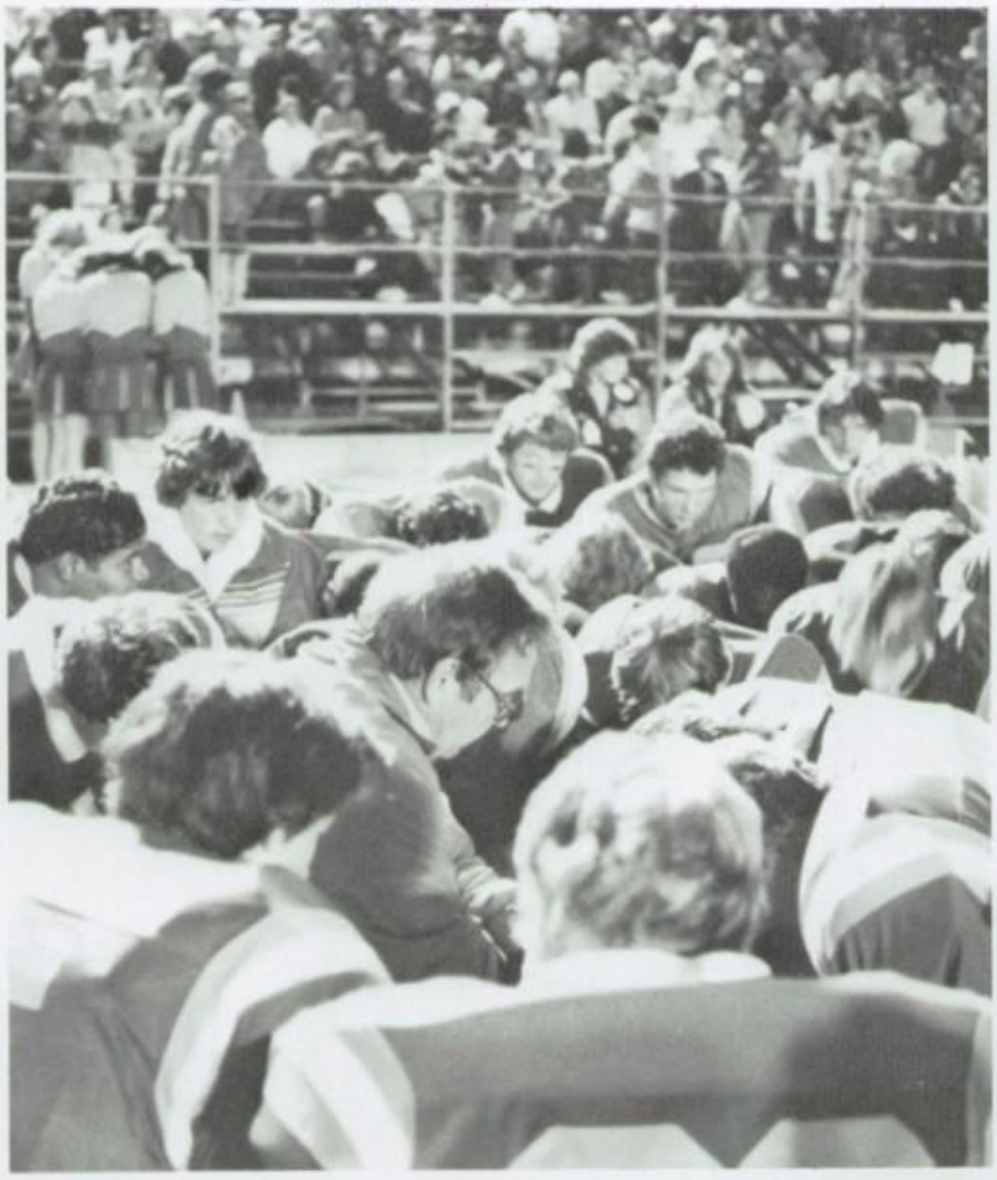
'83 HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME



The night of October 21st finally came. After 5 days of spirit week, the auction, and the pep-rally, we were psyched up and ready for the biggest game of the year. We wanted to annihilate the Bucs, and so we did = 20-8.

During the halftime events, the floats were judged with the class of '86 taking it away. Then the 1983 Homecoming Queen was chosen, selected by members of the student body. Gwen Mann was crowned Queen. Beth Willey was honored as Princess. The last homecoming for the class of 1984 was one that will long be remembered.

IT'S PARTY TIME!

"UP WHERE WE BELONG"

UP WHERE WE BELONG"

Generation Gap

It has been said that the Junior-Senior prom of 1983 was the best that the school had seen. To those it helped, it was a time of togetherness and cooperation, which brought the class closer than one can imagine. The highlight of the evening was a brought back tradition, the Grand March. The memory will be shared always as the time we spent "Up Where We Belong". There was a crowing of a prom queen Corinna Hedges and prom princess Beth Willey.

This years musical was "Grease" and it was sponsored by I.T.S. (Troupe 3448), the S.C.A.V. Club, and EKO (Indian River Stage Band). It was performed February 1, 2, and 3, at 8:00 p.m.

The musical took place back in 1959 at Rydell High School. It was a time for gum-chewing, hubcab-stealing, hotrod loving boys with D.A.'s and leather jackets and their wise-cracking girls in teased curls, and pedal pushers.

Congratulations to all who made this musical a big success. "You Broke A Leg".

Hi! My name is Markus Wegener. I come from Germany, that's in the North Sea. I live here in Georgetown, with The Bloodsworths'. My father in Germany is a sells manager in a Swedish company. My mother used to be an elementary school teacher and my sister is living is a hotel learning how to become a hotel manager. When I return home I will have 4 more years of school and then I can go to college,

Hi! I'm Guy Michaca, and a A.F.S. student. I come from Switerland; so "bonjour tout le monde." In Switerland I live with my mother and my brothers Gerard (21) and Gilbert (20). When I came from New York to Georgetown the first thing that surprised me was the landscape, it was very beautiful but very flat. This was very different for me. While staying here, I live with Mrs. Alice Jearman (mom), Trica and Tracy. When I firs came my English wasn't very good. I only had two year of English at my school and it wasn't very easy. But no I understand and speak much better. The people here a very friendly and the teachers are very cool. I like this. I'm living a great experience because to be a foreign exchange student, it's a great experience and I want to thank everybody who helped me throughout this year. S don't say good-bye but "see ya later."

Hi! My name is Marjuit Maattahen and I come from Findland I like staying here very much and I think that when I leave to go back home, I'll miss it here very much! I'd like to see other states too! Delaware isn't the "whole America" but I like it . . . I'd like to live where there are beaches and where it is sunny like here. I haven't been homesick that often, of course I miss them sometimes. But usually I'm so busy doing other things I hardly have time to think about home. I'm sure that someday I will come back to visit here! I'm staying with The Smyks' in the Development of Indian Landing.
